BIO

Mikaela Monet formally known as ALAYA was named “Latin Artist on the Rise”, also one of the 5 Latin female acts to watch by Billboard magazine, and when you get to know her it is easy to understand why. “Bling Bling” her first single reached more than 1 million views in its first 48 hrs after its release. “Tocameló”, her second single Featuring Puerto Rican urban rappers Zion & Lennox, reached the 24th place in the Billboard “Latin Pop Songs” Chart. With more than 8 million plays on Spotify, “Tocameló” hit several top positions in the “Viral Top 50” Charts in more than 12 countries and has over 10 million views on Youtube. In 2020 the artist was nominated in the “Best New Artist Female” category among artists like Rosalia for “Premios lo Nuestro” (one of the most important Latin Music Awards Show in the United States).

Now starting a new chapter in her creative journey, MIKAELA MONET comes with an unstoppable force, delighting us with a new image, a new sound and her debut as an actress. Mikaela just released “Faraona” a song that is featured in the soundtrack of “Mambo Dreams”, a Fictional Latin feature film inspired by the King of Mambo, “Dámaso Pérez Prado”. The movie under the direction of the Mexican award-winning director Emilio Maillé, where Mikaela is playing the leading role along-side Ruben Albarrán, lead vocalist from the well-known Mexican band “Café Tacvba” is available on Amazon Prime Video.
